Institutional Identity and Academic Records Statement

16 October 2026 | To Whom It May Concern

Legal identity and continuity

UBIS SA is based in Geneva, Switzerland, with continuous corporate registration under Swiss enterprise identification number CHE-112.755.057 since February 2006. Earlier register extracts identify the entity as UBIS SA – University of Business and International Studies; the current registered name is UBIS SA.

Academic records and degree verification

UBIS SA Geneva maintains and verifies historical and current academic records of the Geneva institution. Degrees bearing the former institutional name University of Business and International Studies remain Geneva degrees. UBIS SA Geneva continues to teach and issue degrees.

Separate Washington, DC institution

The University of Business, Innovation and Sustainability in Washington, DC is a separate institution and does not become the degree-awarding institution for either historical or current Geneva degrees.

Independent verification of registration

A public, non-certified Geneva Commercial Register extract dated 16 October 2026 is included in the standard packet. Current information may be verified through the official Geneva Commercial Register. Where a certified extract is required, a graduate or receiving organization may request one directly from the Canton of Geneva. Fees, delivery options and acceptance requirements are determined by the relevant authorities.

Individual academic records

For verification of a specific graduate, the Registrar may provide an individual Attestation of Completion after review of the applicable academic records.
