Accreditation History and Current Status

16 October 2026 | To Whom It May Concern

Scope of this statement

This statement addresses the historical and current IACBE specialized accreditation of the business programs of UBIS SA Geneva, including degrees issued under its earlier institutional name.

Accreditation history and current status

The International Accreditation Council for Business Education (IACBE) announced the first-time specialized accreditation of the University of Business and International Studies in 2013. Its letter of 6 January 2021, addressed to the Geneva institution, granted accreditation for the listed business programs from 1 January 2021 through 31 December 2027. UBIS SA Geneva reports uninterrupted specialized business-program accreditation since 2013. Later IACBE records use a new sponsoring-institution designation; that administrative designation does not change the issuer of a Geneva degree.

Evidence and accredited programs

The supporting evidence includes the 2013 IACBE accreditation certificate and announcement, the IACBE letter of 6 January 2021 to the University of Business and International Studies, and the current published IACBE listing under the name UBIS SA. The accredited programs and applicable dates are those specified in each accreditor decision. Current IACBE program listing.

IACBE and CHEA

IACBE is recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) as a programmatic accreditor. CHEA programmatic accreditor directory.

Swiss institutional accreditation

UBIS SA Geneva does not hold Swiss federal institutional accreditation through the Swiss Accreditation Council.
